LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1396, Torres. Elections: Democratic Party.

Existing law specifies the membership of the state central committee for the Democratic Party of California and establishes procedures for the conduct of the committee's meetings and other practices.

This bill would repeal those provisions and would, instead, specify that the elements and practices of the committee be the same as set forth in the standing rules and bylaws of the Democratic Party of California. The bill would require the party to post its standing rules and bylaws on its Internet Web site.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:
